

Memorandum of Understanding between
California State University, Stanislaus, USA
and Khmelnyskyi National University, Ukraine

In recognition of common academic and social interests, and with the intention of encouraging close academic ties, California State University, Stanislaus, and Khmelnytskyi National University enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU). California State University, Stanislaus and Khmelnytskyi National University shall be referred to collectively as Institutions, or sometimes individually as Institution.

This MOU will serve as a general framework for initial cooperation between the two Institutions - in particular to cooperatively explore educational opportunities between California State University, Stanislaus and Khmelnytskyi National University. This MOU is intended to facilitate the discussion of more specific programs of collaboration. In particular, the two Institutions will explore opportunities to:

1. invite authorized officials from the other Institution for the purpose of becoming acquainted with the host Institution's programs and operations, developing the cooperative mechanism, and expanding the areas of cooperation;
2. identify viable programs for student, faculty, and staff;
3. enable interested and qualified students and university personnel to pursue either short- term or extended programs of study at each other's Institution;
4. share information with faculty, staff, and students about the academic programs, research initiatives, and other educational resources that are available at the other Institution;
5. identify other areas of interest for potential collaboration.

Programs that are non-credit in nature will be under the coordination and administration of the California State University, Stanislaus Office of Extended and International Education. If and when the Institutions determine to proceed with any projects under this MOU, including, but not limited to, projects that deal with faculty exchanges or credit-bearing programs, such projects will be under the coordination and administration of the California State University, Stanislaus Office of Academic Affairs and will: (1) be explored and assessed with appropriate university departments and/or colleges; and (2) memorialized in a written contract setting forth the scope of the project and relative responsibilities of each Institution which shall be executed by both Institutions.

This MOU shall go into effect on August 1, 2021 shall continue until July 31, 2026. Either Institution may terminate this MOU in advance of its normal expiration, provided that written notice of 60 days is provided from the terminating Institution to the president of the other. This agreement is not legally binding and may be revised upon mutual consent of each Institution.

Ellen Junn

Ellen Junn (Aug 12, 2021 13:46 PDT)

Ellen Junn
President
California State University, Stanislaus
Turlock, California
Date: Aug 12, 2021

S. Matyukh

Serhiy Anatoliyovych Matyukh
Rector
Khmelnyskyi National University
Khmelnyskyi, Ukraine
Date: 04.08.2021

